THE GOVERNOR'S ACADEMY

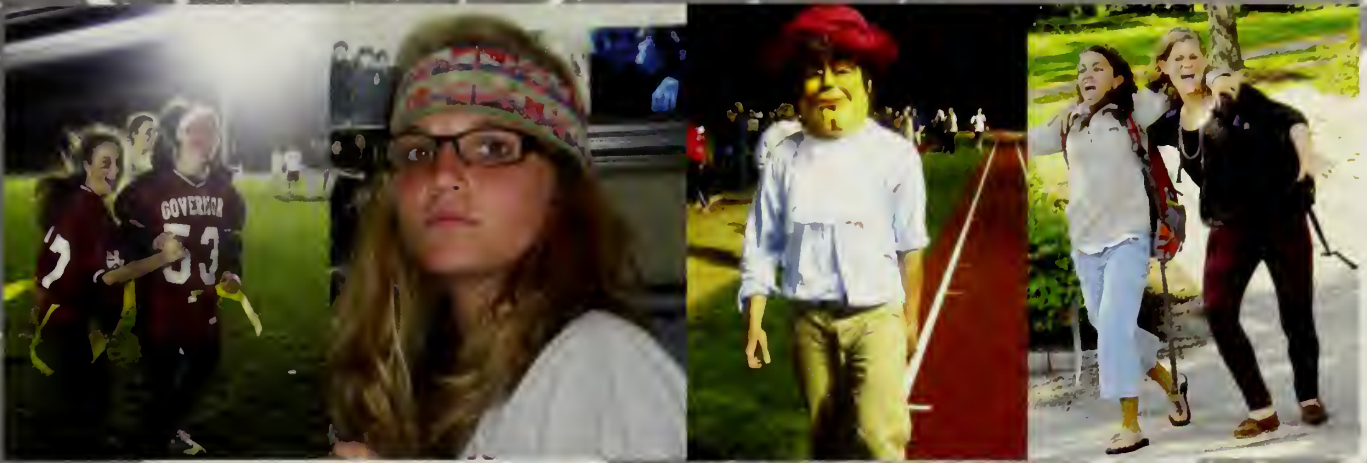

Class of 2010

Milestone

OLD SCHOOL

Founded in 1763, Governor Dummer Academy is the oldest boarding school in the United States. Over the years, the name has changed to The Governor's Academy; however, it has remained the "same ol' place". Despite all the new faces and changes in the 247 years since our school was founded, we remain close to our roots. The theme of the 2010 Milestone is Old School.

Although our roots are set deep in tradition, we have found that the soul of our school is renewed by additions to our community. We work towards new improvements but never lose sight of our origins.

To this day, our community at The Governor's Academy still lives by the school motto that has been with us since the beginning:

Non Sibi Sed Allis.

Not for self, but for others.

HAROLD

Herald Short has had an extraordinary impact on our school. His work behind the scenes may easily go unnoticed, but nonetheless is appreciated by all athletes on campus. Chris Robinson, a close friend and a witness of his hard work, says "he did it with a sense of humor, pride, and joy every day." His passion for sports has always been apparent. His presence not only in the equipment room but also out on the athletic fields has supported our teams over the years. We always have the comfort of knowing we will have at least one fan, and we will look great in our clean uniforms! Another thing to look forward to as we made our afternoon trips to the field house was his coworker, Fred. This thirty-pound companion has the same love for sports as Mr. Short. During the day, Fred could be seen wandering the athletic fields or cheering on the sidelines. It's no wonder why Fred and Mr. Short get along so well. Another person close to his heart is his wife, Janet, who he values and enjoys spending time with. "He would practice his dancing at work- a little Glen Miller on the radio- and he would be ready to go out with Janet at night." It is rare to find a person who takes such joy in all aspects of his life. We are truly fortunate to have Harold Short as a member of our community. The class of 2010 is pleased to dedicate this year's Milestone yearbook to Harold Short.

DEDICATION

S H O R T

"I think Harold makes me realize that it really is the simple joys in life that make our days meaningful."

-Chris Robinson

"He loves sports and he loves kids, so having a job that combined the two was ideal for him."

-Skip Short

"Harold also loves to eat. He had magical powers over the dining hall ladies who would serve him lunch like fine waitresses."

-Chris Robinson

REACH FOR THE STARS

We love you, Mom and Stef

Go placidly amid the haste, and remember what peace there may be in silence. As far as possible without surrender be on good terms with all persons. Speak your truth quietly and clearly; and listen to others, even to the dull and the ignorant, they too have their story. Keep interested in your own career, however humble; it is real possession in the changing fortunes of time. Exercise caution in your business affairs, for the world is full of trickery. But let not this blind you to what virtue there is; many persons strive for high ideals. Be yourself. Take kindly the counsel of the years, gracefully surrendering the things of youth. Nurture strength of spirit to shield you in sudden misfortune. Beyond a wholesome discipline, be gentle with yourself. You are a child of the universe, no less than the trees and the stars; you have a right to be here. Be at peace with God, whatever you conceive him to be, and whatever your labors and aspirations in the noisy confusion of life, keep peace in your soul. With all its sham drudgery and broken dreams; it is still a beautiful world.
